

Bits 'n Bites

by Renee

In the past it has been the policy of this column to introduce to you, the reading public of Torrance, the many restaurants, night spots, and cocktail lounges both in and near Torrance.

I have tried to show you what you can expect when you go to any number of the establishments mentioned. I have tried to keep you informed where the food was outstanding, where the entertainment was good and where the service was exceptional.

Now you can see if I have been correct in my estimations. If your plans have not been pre-scheduled just read further on this page and I am sure that one of these fine eateries will appeal to you. Whether you are tempted by the exotic dishes offered by places like the Tiki Kai and the Polynesian or if steak and chicken are what pleases you at places like The Palms and Charley's, I am sure you will find your kind of meat at one of the establishments shown below. Even the seafood lovers have several places to choose from. Two of the finest are Marineland and the Fish Shanty.

Of course this being Thanksgiving most of the gentry, I presume, have made elaborate plans to have everybody and his brother over to the old homestead for the annual family get together. The turkey has probably already been dressed and partially cooked by now anyway.

If this is the case, sit back and enjoy yourself and dream of that delicious moment just a few hours away and read about the rest of the events happening in Torrance.

However, if your plans have not been firm up, might I suggest you follow the advice mentioned above and go out to eat and have one heck of a time.

DEVOTEES... Miss Lois Elynn and Joey Harris will appear in a ballet concert Dec. 1, El Camino College, Women's Gymnasium. The 8:30 p.m. concert is based upon many forms of dance, from the beginning of ballet through the classical and romantic periods with a finale of American dances. Miss Tatiana Riabochinska, Miss Tatiana Riabochinska, will guest with Miss Elynn and Harris.

SHOW CONFERENCE... Plans for the "once in a lifetime" performance of city officials in the Victor Women's Club Variety Show scheduled for Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 23 and 24, are discussed here by three members of the sponsoring group. From left are Mrs. Raymond Syndestriker, committee member; Mrs. W. A. Pollack, co-chairman; and Mrs. Richard Champion, costume chairman. (Herald Photo)

Ballet Company Plans College Performances

International Concert Ballet Co., in a performance at El Camino College, is designed to entertain both the general theater-goer and the knowledgeable devotee in an evening presentation, Dec. 1, in the Women's Gymnasium.

Stars of the ballet are Miss Lois Elynn and Joey Harris, and guest artist, the world renowned ballerina, Tatiana Riabochinska.

Miss Elynn and Harris have appeared together extensively, their work having won critical acclaim while both were in their teens.

Miss Elynn was trained by the famous ballerina Madame Nijinska, and has toured both here and abroad with the New York City Ballet Co., and the Shvetska-Franklin Co.

HARRIS has a comprehensive background as first dancer with Slovenska Ballet, and is also an experienced choreographer, having credits in over 300 television shows both in America and Canada.

Riabochinska ranks as one of the all-time greats, her triumphs having been recorded on the stage of the world's greatest ballet companies.

The concert, beginning at 8:30 p.m., is based upon many forms of dance. The program progresses from the beginning of dance through the classical and romantic periods with a finale of American dances.

Tickets for the general public may now be obtained in the college student store for $2.

"The greatest of faults is to be conscious of none," Eugene M. Marten, LaGrange (Ind.) Standard.

SC Singers To Perform At El Camino

University of Southern California Chamber Singers will perform at El Camino College, Nov. 30, at 8:30 p.m., in the Campus Theater.

This is one of the finest choral aggregations in the country, and its performance promises to be an exciting one," Miss Jane Skinner, El Camino choir director, said.

Directing the group will be Dr. Charles C. Hirt, renowned musician and instructor. Hirt has directed the USC Chamber Singers for the past 15 years.

"Much of the repertoire of this group includes the 16th century madrigal and motet, however the literature will be representative of all the style periods," Miss Skinner noted.

Selections such as Caldara's "Who Is Man" and "Christmas Day" by Holst will be included in the program.

Tickets may be purchased in El Camino's student store. They are $2 for the general public and all seats are reserved.

Every now and then another so-called horror film comes to the screen. These motion pictures are met with a variety of responses. Some are terrified, some shocked, some mildly disturbed, and some hilariously tickled.

Such is the case with one of the latest of this type movie. The name of this film is "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane," starring Joan Crawford and Betty Davis.

Now both of these talented actresses have been known for their many macabre and "Hitchcock" type roles. So with this lineup you can draw your conclusions.

Here is one I should like to venture on this calm Thanksgiving day. Aside from the normal thrills and chills you may if you are not careful, leave the theater like a friend of mine did. This gentleman emerged from the theater with an acute pain in his side from laughter.

It was his opinion, and quite a strange one at that, that both Miss Crawford and Miss Davis have finally come to their zenith.

"Those two really tickled me," he said. "Each of them was trying to outdo the other at every turn. They were rather funny."

So you see one can't tell how these chillers will effect the viewers.
